

Level: master
Course title: Master thesis
Status: obligatory
ECTS: 20
Requirements: Successfully complete all obligatory courses and at least one option among elective courses.
Learning objectives Students independently write and defend the master work (thesis) from one of the areas covered by the study programme.
Learning outcomes After finished and defended master work student should have developed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - General skills: autonomy in work and professional development. - Subject-specific skills: a systematic approach to a specific problem from the branch, presenting and defending results.
Syllabus Final thesis represents a student's independent work in which he/she meets the methodology of the area selected. Depending on the chosen theme, after conducting theoretical and / or practical work, a student prepares a Master work in the form which generally contains the following chapters: Introduction, Theoretical and / or Experimental part, Results and Discussion, Conclusion, Literature review.
Weekly teaching load				Other:
Lectures:	Exercises:	Other forms of teaching:	Student research:	