

Table 5.2B Specification of the final paper

Study programme: Undergraduate Vocational Studies in Optometry (Optometrist)
Type and level: Bachelor Studies – Basic Vocational Studies
ECTS: 15
Requirements: Successfully completed all required courses and at least one elective course.
Objectives of the final paper: Enable students to write and work on the final paper in the field of Optometry.
Outcomes: After finishing the final paper, student should possess: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>– General skills: autonomy in their work and professional development;</li><li>– Subject-specific skills: systematic approach to a specific problem in the profession, presenting and defending professional results.</li></ul>
Syllabus: Final paper represents independent students' work in which they meet the methodology of professional work in the field. Depending on a chosen theme, after completing practical and/or theoretical part, students prepare the final paper which consist of the following parts: Introduction, Theoretical and/or experimental part, Results and Discussion, Conclusion and Review of the literature.
Teaching methods: Mentoring
Grading (maximum number of points 100)
Written part: 50 Oral examination: 50
Maximum length: one page - A4 paper size
The final paper, if it is necessary, has to be presented in the bookcase.