

Narrow scientific field	Description of requirements related to preparation of the PhD dissertation
Geosciences (Tourism)	PhD dissertation is a student's independent scientific work. PhD dissertation is to be done in the field of Geosciences (Tourism). Production and defending of the dissertation acknowledges student's independence, originality and creativity in applying theoretical and practical knowledge in the field. The PhD dissertation can be registered after completing the first year of studies. Detailed requirements on registration, conditions of producing and defending the dissertation are regulated by the Statute and corresponding acts of the Faculty of Sciences.