

Level: bachelor
Course title: Urban Development and Conurbation
Status: elective
ECTS: 6
Requirements: passed course in Geography of Settlement
Learning objectives To introduce students to the systematic development of cities, the dynamics of urbanization in the world, and presentation of all urban environments - from small urban areas to the megalopolises, and then the presentation of modern town planning.
Learning outcomes Based on their geographical knowledge and knowledge of the urban environment, students will be able to manage and plan urban changes and development for all levels of ecumenical environment.
Syllabus Theoretical instruction The concept of the city, the emergence and development of cities in the world and the notion of division of urbanization, degree and pace of urbanization in the world, the functions of the city, the area of the city (theories and models, the functional-spatial structure of the city, socio-spatial structure of the city, the body structure of the city, the city as an ecosystem, planned organization of the spatial structure of the city, the city and its surroundings, the city and region megalopolises).  Practical instruction Seminar papers
Weekly teaching load 4(60)				Other:
Lectures: 2	Exercises: 2	Other forms of teaching:	Student research:	