

Level: Bachelor
Course title: English language B1
Status: obligatory
ECTS: 3
Requirements: none
Learning objectives Comprehension of language skills, understanding of different types of texts, authentic situations and topics equivalent to B1 level.
Learning outcomes General language skills: independent use of language in everyday and professional situations, written and spoken communication. Subject-specific language skills: independent use of written texts from different scientific fields, understanding spoken language, writing general short written forms.
Syllabus Theoretical instruction Understanding of authentic written and spoken material from everyday situations and academic context; understanding precise meaning of certain expressions; listening comprehension practice. Speaking: independent language use in everyday situations and discussions on current topics, vocabulary building strategies. Reading: instructions on independent use of written texts from different fields. Writing: filling in forms, CV, formal and informal letters, short reports.  Practical instruction Communication skills, reading and understanding of texts; grammar practice, enhancing individual research and learning.
Weekly teaching load 3 (45)				Other:
Lectures:3	Exercises:	Other forms of teaching:	Student research:	