

Level: bachelor
Course title: Regional Tourism Geography
Status: elective
ECTS : 6
Requirements: -
Learning objectives : Introduction to elementary theoretical bases of Tourism Geography, presenting the most remarkable European and International regions for tourism, as well as introduction of tourism in Serbia and Montenegro.
Learning outcomes: Knowledge of the studied subject, methodology and basic concepts and categories of tourism and its functions. Through the syllabus, students can have a complex and closer insight to some tourist regions and gain ideas about tourism in our country while analysing the value of national heritage and characteristic regions from tourism aspects.
Syllabus Theory instruction Subject contains three bigger units: Theoretical Basics of Tourism Geography, Geographic Aspects of Tourism – most remarkable tourism regions of Europe and other parts of the world, Tourism Geography of Serbia and Montenegro. Practical instruction Elaboration of maps and charts which present different tourism regions.
Weekly teaching load 3 (45)				Other: -
Lectures: 2	Exercises: 1	Other forms of teaching:	Student research:	