

Level: bachelor
Course title: Political Geography
Status: elective
ECTS: 6
Requirements: None
Learning objectives Understanding the territorial structures and political processes in terms of impact of geographic and other factors in the broader sense: geographic location, natural and geographic factors, the nature of the state border, regional and economic relations, etc.
Learning outcomes Training for the analysis of political and geographic structures, their functions, processes and relationships, as well as certain theories and opinions.
Syllabus Theoretical instruction Theoretical and methodological basis of the discipline, the State as a subject of political geography (sovereignty, polity, geography, morphometry, territorial, state boundaries), political and geographical aspects of population (population size, distribution of the population structure, migration), Structure of the international community (international political groups, economic and political groups, military-political groups). Practical instruction Consideration of cartographic, statistical and other materials to illustrate the theoretical part of teaching.
Weekly teaching load			Other:
Lectures: 2	Exercises: 1	Other forms of teaching: -	