

Level: bachelor
Course title: School in nature
Status: elective
ECTS: 6
Requirements: None
Learning objectives
Display and analysis of the structure and programming of the selected model school in nature.
Learning outcomes
Highlighting important and various educational tasks of school education and raising awareness among students of the relevant pedagogical value of the existing learning models.
Syllabus
Theoretical instruction
Types of schools in nature. Choice of protection for the organization of educational and extracurricular activities. Direct observation of geographic reality as meaningful and fruitful educational and scientific methods. Planning a school program. Immediate preparation. Preparation of the substantive and technical school program. Performing educational and extracurricular activities in the natural and geographic environment. Facilities, teaching resources and technical assistance resources. The teacher and the student. Forms and methods of work. Curricula. Application of innovative teaching technology in the school program.
Practical instruction
Fieldwork is related to working with elementary school students in school buildings in the countryside of the Fruska Gora mountain or other accessible areas and facilities.
Weekly teaching load 3 (45)				Other:
Lectures: 2	Exercises: 1	Other forms of teaching: -	Student research: -	