

Level: master
Course title: Principles and methods of tourism regionalisation
Status: elective
ECTS: 6
Requirements: None
Learning objectives To introduce students to basics of regionalisation, various space categories in geography and tourism with elements and factors, principles, methods and regionalisation indicators, regional structures and systems, sustainable regional development and intraregional categories, hierarchy, types and examples of tourism regions.
Learning outcomes Students should develop general and specific abilities of critical thinking, relating structures and categories of tourism regions. Mastering the academic level of analysis of the topics covered, finding solution for particular regionalisation problems.
Syllabus Theoretical instruction Main concept categories in geography and tourism, issues of regions and regionalisation will be established and acquired by applying analytical, synthetical, comparative, cartographic, graphical, statistical and other methods. Analysis of elements and factors of tourism regions and regionalisation. Principles and methods of tourism regionalisation. Indicators of region and regionalisation. Regional structure and systems. Importance of sustainable regional and tourism development. Interregional and intraregional relations. Examples of tourism regions and their analysis.  Practical instruction Analysis of problems by means of statistical and graphical indicators and examples, which may include written and oral presentation of a seminar paper.
Weekly teaching load 4 (60)				Other:-
Lectures: 2	Exercises: 2	Other forms of teaching:-	Student research:-	