

Level: Bachelor
Course title: Principles of Economics
Status: Obligatory
ECTS: 7
Requirements: None
Learning objectives
Learning the fundamental economic categories, principles, theories and policies with emphasis on macroeconomics, according to the study profile.
Learning outcomes
After finishing this course, students will be able to identify, interpret and predict basic economic principles and trends, especially in the macro-political context.
Syllabus
Theoretical presentation of economics and macroeconomics as scientific disciplines: theoretical approaches, the basic model of macroeconomics, the system of national accounts, money and the central bank, labour and employment, the quantity theory of money, inflation and the natural rate of unemployment, fiscal and monetary policy, open macroeconomics, economic growth, global processes in economy, welfare state and transition processes.
Weekly teaching load				Other:
Lectures: 3	Exercises:	Other forms of teaching:	Student research:	