

Level: bachelor
Course title: Bachelor thesis (T329)
Status: obligatory
ECTS: 8
Requirements: all the exams in the study programme passed
Learning objectives Research, analysis and presentation of results related to tourism industry. Using the appropriate methodology and writing style in accordance with the topic and subject of the thesis.
Learning outcomes Original scientific work
Syllabus Bachelor thesis is a student's research paper with adequate research methodology in the field of tourism. After conducting research, the student prepares the final work in a form that contains the following chapters: introduction, theoretical part, experimental part, results and discussion, conclusion, review of the literature. Topics and content of a bachelor thesis could include several disciplines: various forms of tourism, economics, management and marketing, regional tourism geography, hospitality, gastronomy and hunting.
Weekly teaching load				Other:
Lectures: /	Exercises: /	Other forms of teaching: /	Student research: /	