

Level: bachelor
Course title: Establishment of hunting ground and hunting management
Status: obligatory
ECTS: 7
Requirements: No requirements
Learning objectives The aim of the course is to familiarize students with the new Law on Hunting and other laws in the field of hunting. The goal is to introduce students to the measures and means to achieve the objectives of hunting ground management, species selection and game breeding methods, and training for the production of the hunting management plan and documents.
Learning outcomes In addition to acquiring new skills in hunting legislation, students will be fully trained in the management of hunting grounds, which includes operations as the counting game in hunting ground, making hunting grounds managing plans, annual management plans, interim management plans and management plans of hunting areas.
Syllabus Theoretical instruction History of legislation in the field of hunting, the role of the Ministry of the Law on Hunting. Introduction to hunting management objectives (general and specific) measures and means to achieve the objectives of hunting management; hunting ground management planning for different game species; selection and breeding of game species; planning the structure of the game population; the use of game; making feasibility study in the field of hunting. Practical instruction Analysis of these issues through specific examples, which may include written and oral presentation of the paper that comprise analysis of existing and development of new hunting business documents.
Weekly teaching load 5 (75)				Other:
Lectures: 3	Exercises: 2	Other forms of teaching:	Student research:	