

Name of the subject: SEMINAR II
Teacher(s):
Status of the subject: Obligatory
Number of ECTS points: 30
Condition: -
Goal
The objective of the course is to train the student to prepare a doctoral dissertation.
Outcome of the subject
The final outcome of the course is a critical analysis of the results in order to successfully complete the doctoral dissertation.
Content of the subject
The seminar is a thematic, narrowly oriented, specialized form of teaching that is conducted in defined terms with students, and is in the direct function of developing a doctoral dissertation. The program of work of each seminar is formed in accordance with the needs of developing a specific doctoral dissertation and depends on the topic, structure and complexity of the doctoral dissertation. The student, in consultation with the advisor (mentor), prepares Seminar II in the form of a presentation that includes presentation of the results obtained during the doctoral dissertation, their critical discussion and conclusions. The defense of the seminar will be conducted in joint terms. The student defends the seminar publicly before a five-member committee nominated by the Departmental Council for each school year and before the PhD students attending the course.
Recommended literature
Scientific and professional literature in the field of doctoral dissertation subject to agreement with the advisor (mentor).
Number of active classes	Theory:	Practice:20
Methods of delivering lectures
The basic form of teaching at the seminar is the independent research work of the student, which is realized in agreement with the advisor (mentor).
Evaluation of knowledge (maximum number of points 100)
Preparation of the presentation - 30 points
Seminar defense - 70 points		