

Study program: MAS Management in Tourism
Name of the subject: Final thesis – research
Teacher (s): all mentors
Status of the subject: All modules required
Number of ECTS: 6
Conditions: passed all exams scheduled in the study program
Циљ предмета Research and analysis of results related to specific tourism disciplines. Application of appropriate methodology and writing style in accordance with the topic of the thesis of the final paper - master's thesis.
Course objective: The student will be able to independently interpret and present the results obtained during the work on the final thesis, the results of which should make a certain contribution to later more detailed and serious research in a given scientific discipline or geographical area.
Course outcomes: The final master's thesis is a research work of the student in which he becomes acquainted with the methodology of research in the field of tourism. After the research is completed, the student prepares a final thesis in a form that contains the following chapters: Introduction, Theoretical part, Experimental part, results and discussion, Conclusion, Literature review. The topics and content of the diploma theses that would be prepared and defended within the study program MAS Management in Tourism could include several scientific disciplines: cultural tourism, cultural heritage, management and marketing, IT in cultural tourism, event industry, IT in the event industry, cultural policies.
Recommendation literature: Relevant scientific and professional literature in the field of the thesis topic
Number of active classes 8	Theory:	Practical classes: 0+8+0
Methods of delivering lectures The basic form of teaching is the student's independent research work, which is carried out in agreement with the mentor. Mandatory oral defense of the master's thesis before an officially approved evaluation committee. -collection and study of literature -data collection -planning and conducting experiments -data processing -writing and oral defense of the final thesis
Knowledge score (maximum number of points 100) Presentation – 30 points Oral defense – 70 points		