

Study program: MAS Management in Tourism
Name of the subject: Final thesis – preparation and defense
Teacher (s): all mentors
Status of the subject: All modules required
Number of ECTS: 9
Conditions: The final thesis is defended after passing exams in all subjects and after fulfilling all obligations set out in the study programme. It consists of the preparation and public defence of the final thesis. The application procedure, conditions for preparation and the manner of defending the final thesis are set out in the Statute and relevant acts of the Faculty of Science and the University.
Course objective: The final thesis is an independent scientific research work of the student and represents a synthesis of theoretical knowledge and practical work through which the student acquires the ability for scientifically based interpretation of results from a selected narrow scientific field of tourism.
Course outcomes: Through the process of writing and defending the final master's thesis, the student acquires the ability to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - independently collect information and data from professional and scientific literature; - logical thinking, formulating working hypotheses and dissertation goals and drawing conclusions; - presenting various scientific and professional information, giving opinions and exchanging ideas; - planning and carrying out experimental work; - team research work; - scientifically based interpretation of experimental data and obtained results; - successful synthesis of relevant scientific data and drawing conclusions.
Course content: The final thesis usually contains the following chapters: Contents, Introduction, Objectives, Literature Review, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusions, References. In addition to the above chapters, each final thesis also contains a biography of the candidate and key documentation in Serbian and English. In addition to the above elements, the final thesis may also contain additional elements, such as a List of Tables, List of Figures, Appendices, List of Abbreviations, etc.
Recommendation literature: Relevant scientific and professional literature in the field of the thesis topic
Number of active classes:	Theory	Other classes: 2
Methods of delivering lectures Mandatory oral defense of the Final Thesis before an officially designated committee.
Knowledge score (maximum number of points 100) 91-100 points – grade 10 81-90 points – 9 71-80 points – 8 61-70 points – 7 51-60 points – 6 Up to 51 points – 5 (failed)		